   - The lantern glows.
   - Moths and bugs fly nearby.

2. The simple predicate is the verb or verb phrase that expresses the essential thought about the subject of the sentence. A compound predicate is made up of two or more verbs or verb phrases that are joined by a conjunction and have the same subject.
   - Rachel jogged down the hill.
   - Pete stretched and exercised for an hour.

3. The complete subject consists of the simple subject and all the words that modify it.
   - Golden curly hair framed the child’s face.

   - Through the toys raced the children. (inverted)
   - Is the teacher feeling better? (question)
   - There are seats in the first row.

PARTS OF SPEECH

Nouns

1. A singular noun is a word that names one person, place, thing, or idea.

   - A plural noun names more than one person, place, thing, or idea.
   - aunts      meadows      pencils      friendships

2. To help you determine whether a word in a sentence is a noun, try adding it to the following sentences. Nouns will fit in at least one of these sentences:
   - He said something about ________.
   - I know something about a(n) ________.
   - He said something about aunts.
   - I know something about a meadow.

   - He _______.  We _______.  She _______ it.
     - He knows.
     - We walk.
     - She sees it.

2. An action verb tells what someone or something does. The two types of action verbs are transitive and intransitive. A transitive verb is followed by a word or words—called the direct object—that answer the question what? or whom? An intransitive verb is not followed by a word that answers what? or whom?
   - Transitive: The tourists saw the ruins. The janitor washed the window.
   - Intransitive: Owls hooted during the night. The children played noisily.

3. An indirect object receives what the direct object names.

   - Base: I talk.

   - Past: I talked.
   - Past Participle: I have talked.
7. Irregular verbs form the past and past participle in other ways.

8. The principal parts are used to form six verb tenses. The tense of a verb expresses time.

Simple Tenses

Present Tense: She speaks. (present or habitual action)
Past Tense: She spoke. (action completed in the past)
Future Tense: She will speak. (action to be done in the future)

Perfect Tenses

Present Perfect Tense: She has spoken. (action just done or still in effect)
Past Perfect Tense: She had spoken. (action completed before some other past action)
Future Perfect Tense: She will have spoken. (action to be completed before some future time)
9. Progressive forms of verbs are made up of a form of be and a present participle and express a continuing action. Emphatic forms are made up of a form of do and a base form and add emphasis or ask questions.

Progressive: Marla is babysitting. The toddlers have been napping for an hour.

Emphatic: They do prefer beef to pork.

We did ask for a quiet table.

10. The voice of a verb shows whether the subject performs the action or receives the action of the verb. A sentence is in the active voice when the subject performs the action. A sentence is in the passive voice when the subject receives the action of the verb.

The robin ate the worm. (active)
The worm was eaten by the robin. (passive)

Pronouns

1. A pronoun takes the place of a noun, a group of words acting as a noun, or another pronoun.

2. A personal pronoun refers to a specific person or thing. First-person personal pronouns refer to the speaker, second-person pronouns refer to the one spoken to, and third-person pronouns refer to the one spoken about.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject Form</th>
<th>Plural Form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>First Person</td>
<td>I, me, my, mine</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Second Person</td>
<td>you, your, yours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Third Person</td>
<td>he, she, it, him, her, his, hers, its</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3. A reflexive pronoun refers to the subject of the sentence. An intensive pronoun adds emphasis to a noun or another pronoun. A demonstrative pronoun points out specific persons, places, things, or ideas.

Reflexive: Nikki prepares himself for the day-long hike.

Intensive: Nikki himself prepares for the day-long hike.

Demonstrative: That was a good movie! These are the files you wanted.

4. An interrogative pronoun is used to form questions. A relative pronoun is used to introduce a subordinate clause. An indefinite pronoun refers to persons, places, or things in a more general way than a personal pronoun does.

Interrogative: Whose are these? Which did you prefer?

Relative: The bread that we tasted was whole wheat.

Indefinite: Someone has already told them. Everyone agrees on the answer.

5. Use the subject form of a personal pronoun used as a subject or when it follows a linking verb.

   He writes stories. Are they ready? It is I. (after linking verb)

6. Use the object form of a personal pronoun when it is an object.

   Mrs. Cleary called us. (direct object) Stephen offered us a ride. (indirect object)
   Sara will go with us. (object of preposition)

7. Use a possessive pronoun to replace a possessive noun. Never use an apostrophe in a possessive personal pronoun.

   Their science experiment is just like ours.
When a pronoun is followed by an appositive, use the subject pronoun if the appositive is the subject. Use the object pronoun if the appositive is an object. To test whether the pronoun is correct, read the sentence without the appositive.

We eighth-graders would like to thank you.
The success of us geometry students is due to Ms. Marcia.

In incomplete comparisons, choose the pronoun that you would use if the missing words were fully expressed.

Harris can play scales faster than I (can).
It is worth more to you than (it is to) me.

In questions use who for subjects and whom for objects.

Who wants another story?
Whom will the class choose as treasurer?

In subordinate clauses use who and whoever as subjects after linking verbs, and use whom and whomever as objects.

These souvenirs are for whoever wants to pay the price.
The manager will train whomever the president hires.

An antecedent is the word or group of words to which a pronoun refers or that a pronoun replaces. All pronouns must agree with their antecedents in number, gender, and person.

Marco’s sister spent her vacation in San Diego.
The huge old trees held their own against the storm.

Make sure that the antecedent of a pronoun is clearly stated.

UNLCLEAR: Mrs. Cardonal baked cookies with her daughters, hoping to sell them at the bake sale.
CLEAR: Mrs. Cardonal baked cookies with her daughters, hoping to sell the cookies at the bake sale.
UNLCLEAR: If you don’t tie the balloon to the stroller, it will blow away.
CLEAR: If you don’t tie the balloon to the stroller, the balloon will blow away.

Adjectives

An adjective modifies, or describes, a noun or pronoun by providing more information or giving a specific detail.

The smooth surface of the lake gleamed.
Frosty trees glistened in the sun.

Most adjectives will fit this sentence:
The _______ one seems very _______.
The handmade one seems very colorful.

Articles are the adjectives a, an, and the. Articles do not meet the preceding test for adjectives.

A proper adjective is formed from a proper noun and begins with a capital letter.
Tricia admired the Scottish sweaters.
Our Mexican vacation was memorable.
5. The comparative form of an adjective compares two things or people. The superlative form compares more than two things or people. Form the comparative by adding \(-er\) or combining with \(more\) or \(less\). Form the superlative by adding \(-est\) or combining with \(most\) or \(least\).

   - She _____ thinks fast.
   - She thinks quickly.
   - She thinks unusually fast.
   - She seldom thinks fast.

3. The comparative form of an adverb compares two actions. The superlative form compares more than two actions. For shorter adverbs add \(-er\) or \(-est\) to form the comparative or superlative. For most adverbs, add \(more\) or \(most\) or \(less\) or \(least\) to form the comparative or superlative.
   - We walked faster than before.
   - They listened most carefully to the final speaker.

4. Avoid double negatives, which are two negative words in the same clause.

   - CORRECT: I have not seen any stray cats.

Prepositions, Conjunctions, and Interjections

1. A preposition shows the relationship of a noun or a pronoun to some other word. A compound preposition is made up of more than one word.
   - The trees near our house provide plenty of shade.

3. A conjunction is a word that joins single words or groups of words. A coordinating conjunction joins words or groups of words that have equal grammatical weight. Correlative conjunctions work in pairs to join words and groups of words of equal weight. A subordinating conjunction joins two clauses in such a way as to make one grammatically dependent on the other.

I want to visit the art gallery and the museum. (coordinating)

Both left and right turns were impossible in the traffic. (correlative)

We go to the park whenever Mom lets us. (subordinating)

4. A conjunctive adverb clarifies a relationship.

Frank loved the old maple tree; nevertheless, he disliked raking its leaves.

5. An interjection is an unrelated word or phrase that expresses emotion or strong feeling.

Look, there are two cardinals at the feeder. Good grief! Are you kidding?

CLAUSES AND COMPLEX SENTENCES

1. A clause is a group of words that has a subject and a predicate and is used as a sentence or a part of a sentence. There are two types of clauses: main and subordinate. A main clause has a subject and a predicate and can stand alone as a sentence. A subordinate clause has a subject and a predicate, but it cannot stand alone as a sentence.

She became a vegetarian because she loves animals.

2. There are three types of subordinate clauses: adjective, adverb, and noun.

a. An adjective clause is a subordinate clause that modifies a noun or pronoun.

The wrens that built a nest in the backyard are now raising their young.

b. An adverb clause is a subordinate clause that often modifies the verb in the main clause of the sentence. It tells when, where, how, why, or under what conditions.

Before they got out, the goats broke the fence in several places.

c. A noun clause is a subordinate clause used as a noun.

Whatever we do will have to please everyone. (subject)

The prize goes to whoever can keep the squirrels away from the feeder. (object of preposition)
3. Main and subordinate clauses can form several types of sentences. A simple sentence has only one main clause and no subordinate clauses. A compound sentence has two or more main clauses. A complex sentence has at least one main clause and one or more subordinate clauses.

- Simple: The apples fell off the tree.
- Compound: The dancers bowed, and the audience clapped.
- Complex: Because they turn to face the sun, these flowers are called sunflowers.

4. A sentence that makes a statement is classified as a declarative sentence.
   - My dad’s favorite horses are buckskins.

   An imperative sentence gives a command or makes a request.
   - Please close the door on your way out.

   An interrogative sentence asks a question.

   An exclamatory sentence expresses strong emotion.

   - What a view that is!

Phrases

1. A phrase is a group of words that acts in a sentence as a single part of speech.

2. A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition and ends with a noun or pronoun, which is called the object of the preposition. A prepositional phrase can act as an adjective or an adverb.
   - The house on the hill is white. (modifies the noun house)
   - Everyone in the house heard the storm. (modifies the pronoun everyone)
   - The geese flew toward warmer weather. (modifies the verb flew)

3. An appositive is a noun or pronoun that is placed next to another noun or pronoun to identify it or give more information about it. An appositive phrase is an appositive plus its modifiers.
   - Our sister Myra is home from college. Her college, Purdue University, is in Indiana.

4. A verbal is a verb form that functions in a sentence as a noun, an adjective, or an adverb. A verbal phrase is a verbal and other words that complete its meaning.
   a. A participle is a verbal that functions as an adjective. Present participles end in -ing. Past participles usually end in -ed.
      - The squeaking floor board gave me away. The twisted tree was ancient.
   b. A participial phrase contains a participle and other words that complete its meaning.
      - Moving quickly across the room, the baby crawled toward her mother.
c. A gerund is a verbal that ends in -ing. It is used in the same way a noun is used. Sailing is a traditional vacation activity for the Andersons.

d. A gerund phrase is a gerund plus any complements or modifiers. Walking to school is common for many school children.

e. An infinitive is a verbal formed from the word to and the base form of a verb. It is often used as a noun. Because an infinitive acts as a noun, it may be the subject of a sentence or the direct object of an action verb. To sing can be uplifting. (infinitive as subject) Babies first learn to babble. (infinitive as direct object)

f. An infinitive phrase contains an infinitive plus any complements or modifiers. The flight attendants prepared to feed the hungry passengers.

SUBJECT-VERB AGREEMENT

1. A verb must agree with its subject in person and number.
   - The kangaroo jumps. (singular) The kangaroos jump. (plural)
   - She is leaping. (singular) They are leaping. (plural)

2. In inverted sentences the subject follows the verb. The sentence may begin with a prepositional phrase, the word there or here, or a form of do.
   - Into the pond dove the children.
   - Does a bird have a sense of smell? There is a squeak in that third stair.

3. Do not mistake a word in a prepositional phrase for the subject.
   - The glass in the window is streaked. (The singular verb is agrees with the subject, glass.)

4. A title is always singular, even if nouns in the title are plural. Instant World Facts is a helpful reference book.

5. Subjects combined with and or both need a plural verb unless the parts are of a whole unit. When compound subjects are joined with or or nor, the verb agrees with the subject listed last.
   - Canterbury and Coventry have famous cathedrals.
   - A bagel and cream cheese is a filling snack.
   - Either two short stories or a novel is acceptable for your book report.

6. A verb must agree in number with an indefinite pronoun subject. Always plural: both, few, many, others, and several
   - Either singular or plural: all, any, most, none, and some
   - Most of the snow has melted. All of the children have eaten.

Composition

Writing Themes and Paragraphs

1. Use prewriting to find ideas to write about. One form of prewriting, freewriting, starts with a subject or topic and branches off into related ideas. Another way to find a topic is to ask and answer questions about your starting subject, helping you to gain a deeper understanding of your chosen topic. Also part of the prewriting stage is determining who your readers or audience will be and deciding your purpose for writing. Your purpose—writing to persuade, to explain, to describe, or to narrate—is partially shaped by who your audience will be.

2. To complete your first draft, organize your prewriting into an introduction, body, and conclusion. Concentrate on unity and coherence of the overall piece. Experiment with different paragraph orders: chronological order places events in the order in which they happened; spatial order places objects in the order in which they appear; and compare/contrast order shows similarities and differences in objects or events.

3. Revise your composition if necessary. Read through your draft, looking for places to improve content and structure. Remember that varying your sentence patterns and lengths will make your writing easier and more enjoyable to read.
4. In the editing stage, check your grammar, spelling, and punctuation. Focus on expressing your ideas clearly and concisely.

5. Finally, prepare your writing for presentation. Sharing your composition, or ideas, with others may take many forms: printed, oral, or graphic.

Outlining

1. The two common forms of outlines are sentence outlines and topic outlines. Choose one type of outline and keep it uniform throughout.

2. A period follows the number or letter of each division. Each point in a sentence outline ends with a period; the points in a topic outline do not.

3. Each point begins with a capital letter.

4. A point may have no fewer than two subpoints.

Writing Letters

1. Personal letters are usually handwritten in indented form (first line of paragraphs, each line of the heading and inside address, and the signature are indented). Business letters are usually typewritten in block or semiblock form. Block form contains no indents; semiblock form indents only the first line of each paragraph.

2. The five parts of a personal letter are the heading (the writer’s address and the date), salutation (greeting), body (message), complimentary close (such as “Yours truly,”), and signature (the writer’s name). Business letters have the same parts and also include an inside address (the recipient’s address).
3. Reveal your personality and imagination in colorful personal letters. Keep business letters brief, clear, and courteous.

4. Personal letters include letters to friends and family members. Thank-you notes and invitations are personal letters that may be either formal or informal in style.

5. Use a letter of request, a type of business letter, to ask for information or to place an order. Be concise, yet give all the details necessary for your request to be fulfilled. Keep the tone of your letter courteous, and be generous in allotting time for a response.

6. Use an opinion letter to take a firm stand on an issue. Make the letter clear, firm, rational, and purposeful. Be aware of your audience, their attitude, how informed they are, and their possible reactions to your opinion. Support your statements of opinion with facts.

A proper noun names a particular person, place, thing, or idea. It may consist of one or more words. Always begin a proper noun with a capital letter. If a proper noun has more than one word, capitalize the first word and all the important words.

Linking Verbs and Predicate Words

A linking verb connects a sentence’s subject with a noun or an adjective in the predicate. The predicate word tells what a sentence’s subject is or is like.

An avocado is a fruit. (The linking verb is connects the subject avocado with fruit.)

In the sentence above, fruit is a predicate noun. It tells what the subject, avocado, is. Some sentences have a predicate adjective, an adjective that follows a linking verb and tells what the subject is like.

This avocado is ripe. (Ripe is a predicate adjective. It tells what the subject avocado is like.)

Unit 5: Adjectives

Lesson 30
Adjectives and Proper Adjectives

A word that describes persons, places, or things is an adjective. An adjective usually answers one of three questions about the noun or pronoun it modifies.

What kind? Please use the drawing paper.
How many? Wanda had three sisters.
Which one? That seat is taken.

Usually the adjective comes just before the noun it modifies. However, when the noun is the subject followed by a linking verb, its adjective follows the linking verb as part of the predicate. These adjectives are called predicate adjectives.

The puppy became frisky.

A proper adjective is an adjective formed from a proper noun. Sometimes the proper adjective is the same word as the noun that forms it. At other times it has a special ending. All proper adjectives begin with a capital letter.

Avoiding Double Negatives

Negative words express the idea of not or no. The adverb not often appears in the form of a contraction.

\begin{align*} is + \text{not} & = \text{isn’t} \\ do + \text{not} & = \text{don’t} \\
\text{will} + \text{not} & = \text{won’t} \\ \text{was} + \text{not} & = \text{wasn’t} \\ \text{did} + \text{not} & = \text{didn’t} \\ \text{have} + \text{not} & = \text{haven’t} \\
\text{were} + \text{not} & = \text{weren’t} \\ \text{can} + \text{not} & = \text{can’t} \\ \text{could} + \text{not} & = \text{couldn’t} \end{align*}

Negative words are the opposite of affirmative words. Affirmative words show the idea of yes. Each negative will have several opposite affirmatives.

Telling Prepositions and Adverbs Apart

Some words can be used as either prepositions or adverbs. For a word to be a preposition, it must be part of a prepositional phrase. A preposition never stands alone in a sentence. If the word has an object, it is probably a preposition. If the word is not followed closely by a noun or a pronoun that could be an object, it is probably an adverb.

Anastasia is riding her bike around the neighborhood. (preposition)
Anastasia is riding her bike around. (adverb)

Place a comma before the conjunction in a compound sentence.

I have recovered, but my sister is still sick.

Correlative conjunctions are pairs of words used to connect words or phrases in a sentence. Correlative conjunctions include both . . . and, either . . . or, neither . . . nor, and not only . . . but also.

<th>hooray</th>
<th>ouch</th>
</tr>
</thead>

<td>no</td>
</tr>

<td>wow</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>bravo</td>

Since an interjection is not related to other words in the sentence, it is set off from the rest of the sentence by a comma or an exclamation point. Use an exclamation point after an interjection that stands alone, either before or after a sentence. Use a comma before or after an interjection that expresses a mild emotion to separate it from the rest of the sentence.

Lesson 50
Locating the Subject

Sometimes a prepositional phrase comes between the subject and the verb. The verb must agree with the subject of the sentence and not with the object of the preposition.

The rooms near the entrance have new windows.
The air in the mountains contains little oxygen.

In the first sentence, near the entrance is a prepositional phrase. The subject of the sentence is rooms, which is plural; therefore, the verb that agrees with it, have, is also plural. In the second sentence, in the mountains is a prepositional phrase. The singular verb contains agrees with air, which is a singular subject.

You can check for subject-verb agreement by removing the prepositional phrase.

The rooms have new windows. The air contains little oxygen.

Some sentences begin with there or here. These words are never the subject of a sentence. Look for the subject after the verb.

There are many palm trees in Florida. Here in the city is a large building.

To make finding the subject easier, rearrange these sentences by placing the subject before the verb in the usual manner.

Many palm trees are there in Florida. A large building is here in the city.

Exercise 1 Draw one line under the subject. Draw two lines under the verb in parentheses that agrees with the subject.

Write the simple predicate to the right of the vertical line. When diagraming sentences, use capital letters as they appear in the sentence, but do not use punctuation.

Dynamite explodes.

\text{Dynamite} \quad \text{explodes}

Write only the simple subject and the simple predicate in this part of the diagram. Remember that the simple predicate can include a helping verb.

Diagram a predicate adjective just as you would diagram a predicate noun.

Building Vocabulary: Learning from Context

Context clues are words and sentences around an unfamiliar word that explain its meaning. Three types of context clues are definition, example, and general context. The definition, or meaning, of the unfamiliar word may be given in the sentence. Clue words such as that is, in other words, or which means tell you that a definition is following. Sometimes examples are given to explain an unfamiliar word. The clue words like, for example, including, or such as often come before an example. If there are no special clue words in the sentence, you can use the general context. That is, you can use the details in the words or sentences around the new word to determine its meaning.

Darla is a philatelist, which means that she collects stamps. (The clue words which means tell you that the word philatelist means “stamp collector.”)

Bovines, including domestic cattle and the American bison, are an important source of food for many cultures. (The word including introduces examples of bovines. From the examples you can guess that bovines are members of the cattle family.)

Armand took the rough stones to a lapidary. She was going to cut, grind, and polish the stones so that they could be set in silver bracelets. (The general context tells you that a lapidary has something to do with making jewelry. A lapidary is a person who works with gemstones.)

Synonyms and Antonyms

Synonyms are words that have similar meanings. Knowing synonyms can help you understand new words. Some dictionaries list synonyms with the definition of a word. A thesaurus is a special dictionary that lists all synonyms. Because each synonym has a slightly different meaning, choosing the right one can help you say exactly what you mean.

The cat sprang at the ball of yarn. (Substituting a synonym such as jumped or leaped could help in understanding the unfamiliar word sprang.)

The man walked to the store. (Ambled and trudged are synonyms for walked. Using one of these synonyms would give a slightly different meaning to the sentence.)

Antonyms are words that have opposite or nearly opposite meanings. Knowing antonyms can also help you understand unfamiliar words. Common ones are hot-cold, large-small, and love-hate. Many antonyms can be formed by adding a prefix meaning not. Adding un- to bending makes unbending, the antonym to bending.

Exercise 1 Circle the best synonym for each italicized word. Use a dictionary if necessary.

Lesson 98
The Writing Process: Prewriting I

During the prewriting stage, you plan what you will write. You choose a topic, or subject about which you will write. You can get ideas for topics in any of the following ways:

• Freewrite Write for several minutes, nonstop, about whatever comes into your mind.
• Collect information Gather facts and information from various sources.
• Make a list of events, experiences, people, or ideas that interest you.
• Ask questions Think of a question that you would like to answer.

The topic you select may cover too much information for you to use in one piece of writing. When that is the case, you continue to ask questions or group the information into related items. When the information is cut down to a more suitable size, your topic will be narrow enough to write about.

Exercise 1 Spend five minutes prewriting. Continue writing the entire time. Then look over your freewriting and circle any ideas that you might use as writing topics.
Exercise 2  For each general topic, list two narrower topics related to it that interest you.

Volunteering  Why do people like to volunteer?

Volunteering at the cat shelter.

1. Dancing

2. Junk food

3. Your community

4. Pets

5. Math

6. Privacy

7. Self-confidence

8. Field trips

9. Movies

10. Computers

11. Jokes

12. Winter
Lesson 99
The Writing Process: Prewriting II

During prewriting, you also choose a purpose—the goal you want to accomplish by writing about your topic. Your purpose might be to inform, to persuade, to entertain, to create a work of art, or perhaps a combination of these. Finally, you select and analyze your audience, those who will read or hear your work. Knowing your audience will help you decide what information to include and what writing style to use, such as formal or informal.

Exercise 1 Rewrite each word, phrase, or sentence for the audience named in parentheses.

The new rule at school really bugs me. (Rewrite for an audience of parents.)

The new rule at school is very unfair.

1. Manuel hit a homer in the bottom of the ninth inning to win the game. (Rewrite for an audience who knows nothing about baseball.)

Manuel scored the winning point by hitting the ball over the fence late in the game.

2. Listen up, dudes. (Rewrite as a statement to a noisy roomful of students during a class.)

Listen, everyone.

Lesson 100
The Writing Process: Drafting I

After you have decided on your topic and purpose and gathered ideas and details for writing, you can begin drafting. Drafting is writing about your topic in paragraph form.

The first paragraph of your draft should include a thesis statement, which is a sentence that presents the theme, or main point you want to make. The other paragraphs each develop a main idea related to the theme.

Exercise 1 Underline the thesis statement that best expresses each theme.

Theme: the appeal of computer games

Computer games can be very expensive.

My favorite computer game is Donkey Kong.

Someday I hope to design a computer game.

Computer games involve the hand, the eye, and the mind.

1. Theme: the benefits of some bacteria

Some bacteria are harmful.

Many kinds of bacteria are useful to humans.

Bacteria are very tiny, single-celled organisms.

Some helpful bacteria live in the human digestive tract.

2. Theme: the satisfactions of volunteering at the cat shelter

Sign up at the front desk if you want to volunteer at the cat shelter.

3. Theme: the health benefits of cross-country skiing

Cross-country skiing offers fun for people of all ages.

Cross-country skiing develops the heart and lungs as well as the body.

4. Theme: the importance of wearing a bicycle helmet
Bicycle helmets are not suitable for motorcyclists.
Most bicycle helmets have a sleek shape to lower wind resistance.
Bicyclists who have their heads on straight always wear helmets.
Bicyclists who are safe riders always use hand signals when making turns.

5. Theme: the humor in a movie you saw recently
Half of the characters in the movie Bonzo Goes Bananas are apes.
Bonzo Goes Bananas is funnier than Bonzo Goes Ape.
If you like slapstick humor, you’ll love the movie Bonzo Goes Bananas.
The movie Bonzo Goes Bananas won’t appeal to everyone.

▶ Exercise 2 Underline the three main ideas that support the thesis statement provided.
Thesis statement: My first trip in an airplane went smoother than I expected.
Main ideas: Airports are busy places these days.
- I was a little nervous at first.
- I spent the middle part of the trip studying the landscape far below.
- The descent and landing were exciting.

1. Thesis statement: Building a bluebird house is not difficult.
Main ideas: Assemble your materials.
- Construct the house.
- Paint or stain the house.

2. Thesis statement: This model is a replica of a medieval castle.
Main ideas: The design is typical of twelfth-century English castles.
- Women in medieval society were in charge of household tasks.
- The rooms are authentically furnished and decorated.

Lesson 101
The Writing Process: Drafting II

Each paragraph has a topic sentence which states the main idea. Other sentences in the paragraph contain details that support the main idea.

▶ Exercise 1 Write three related sentences that provide details to support the topic sentence.

7. Students and teachers should treat one another with respect. _____________________

8. You can catch more flies with honey than with vinegar. ___________________________

Lesson 102
The Writing Process: Revising I

After you complete a first draft, you will want to revise, or improve your writing. Begin by looking at each individual paragraph. The topic sentence should clearly state what the paragraph is about. Each of the other sentences should support the topic sentence and work together to develop the topic in a clear, interesting way.

If you find a sentence in your paragraph that does not support the topic, either move it to a paragraph where it would make sense or do not use it at all. If your sentences fit the topic but do not flow together smoothly, try adding a transition word such as first, next, or finally.

Greta had a busy day. She played tennis all morning. She had lunch with Aunt Susan. She visited the aquarium in the afternoon, and she called me tonight. Greta had a busy day. First, she played tennis all morning. Next, she had lunch with Aunt Susan. She visited the aquarium in the afternoon, and, finally, she called me tonight.

Exercise 1 Revise the following paragraph.

The Venus flytrap is a plant that can be grown indoors. The Venus flytrap is a plant that can move fast to catch insects. If you want help catching insects in your home, you might want to get a Venus flytrap. I have a cactus. The tip of each leaf of the Venus flytrap has two pads that hinge at the base. Each pad has sensitive hairs on its surface. When an insect lands on a pad, these hairs move slightly, causing the pads to snap shut. The long “teeth” at the edges of the pad interlock to keep the insect from escaping.
Exercise 2 Write a topic sentence for this paragraph. Then revise the paragraph to support and develop the idea in your topic sentence.

This means that they do not have a backbone. Many kinds of animals are included in this category. Corals and sea anemones, which are both in the sea, have a plantlike appearance. Other invertebrates are agile predators. Some invertebrates are very simple animals that never move. A spider can dart quickly when attacking its prey. Crabs and lobsters can move quickly. Beetles, butterflies, and bees are all in this class. Invertebrates such as worms, snails, and starfish move at a slower pace. One of the largest classes is the insects. You can see from these examples there are many different kinds of invertebrates.
Lesson 103
The Writing Process: Revising II

Once you have revised the content of your paragraphs, you can revise the structure. The idea is to create sentences that make your paragraphs lively and interesting to read. Each sentence should flow smoothly into the next. Varying the length of your sentences can help. Rather than writing all long sentences or all short ones, try to create a balance. Divide a long sentence into two short ones to grab a reader’s attention. Combine two or three short sentences into one longer, flowing sentence by using a connecting word such as or, and, or but. Read your sentences aloud to hear how they sound. A combination of long and short sentences will form a pleasing pattern.

Exercise 1  Combine the short sentences into one longer sentence. Divide the longer sentences into two or three short ones.

1. Sue had roast beef for dinner. Sue had potatoes for dinner.  Sue had roast beef and potatoes for dinner.

2. Kyle likes to play football. Kyle likes to play baseball.  __________________________

3. We met Cindy at the park. We met Jan at the park. We met Bobby at the park.  __________________________

4. The wind whistled through the trees while the young girl made her way through the deep, dark forest.  __________________________

5. I tried strawberry ice cream. I like chocolate better.  __________________________

6. The first television program was fast-paced and exciting, and the second television program was slower and rather dull.  __________________________
Exercise 2 Revise the following paragraph.

Yesterday my class visited the new zoo, and I found it far more interesting than the old zoo because of the way the animals are kept. There are no old-fashioned cages with bars. Instead, natural-looking areas with fences prevent the animals and visitors from getting hurt. You would not believe how many animals live in this zoo! I saw elephants. I saw eels. I saw cute baby koala bears. The zoo director explained how each kind of animal lives in the wild. The zoo director explained how her staff has tried to reproduce those conditions within the zoo. I thoroughly enjoyed the trip, and I hope to go back soon.
Lesson 104
The Writing Process: Editing

After you have made a clean copy of your revised draft, you should proofread it for errors in spelling, grammar, usage, and mechanics. Check for correct subject-verb agreement, correct verb tenses, and clear pronoun references. Also check for run-on sentences and sentence fragments. Use the following proofreading marks to make corrections. If you replace words or phrases, draw a line through them and write the new words just above them.

MEANING

<table>

<th>Insert Space</th>
<th>Close Up Space</th>
<th>Capitalize</th>

10. I looked for the lost key on my dresser in the car and in my cote pockets.
Lesson 105
The Writing Process: Presenting

When you have completed a piece of writing, you may decide to present your work to others. How you will present your writing depends on the audience you selected during prewriting and the nature of the material.

An outlet for presenting your writing to a specific audience is called a market. Many different markets are available to sixth-grade students. Among these are school newspapers and classroom presentations; community groups, newspapers, and radio stations; local and national contests; and magazines that feature the work of young people. The Market Guide for Young Writers, available in many libraries, can give you some ideas for marketing your work.

To decide how to present your piece, analyze your audience; then search for an outlet that serves that audience. Some outlets, such as radio programs or speech contests, offer a chance for oral presentation. In these cases, visual aids may add to your presentation.

Exercise 1 Suggest an outlet or market for each piece of writing described below.

The characters will carry a simple prop or wear an article of clothing that identifies them. The plays would be presented in individual classrooms at different grade levels.

Idea: ____________________________
Intended audience: _______________________
Form of presentation: ________________________________
Lesson 106
Outlining

During prewriting you generate ideas. Outlining gives you a way to organize those ideas before you begin drafting. One way to make an outline is to write pieces of information from your prewriting material on index cards. You can then arrange the cards by main topic and supporting details. When writing an outline, use roman numerals for the main topics. Use capital letters for subtopics. Under each topic, list details using regular numerals. If you include details for a topic or subtopic, always give at least two items. An outline for an account of a rafting trip might look like this:

I. Beginning
   A. Floating calmly
   B. Sights along river
      1. Birds fishing
      2. Fish jumping

II. Middle
   A. Shooting the rapids

We looked into a window of the shed. We saw a mother dog and her puppies on the floor. We opened the door to the shed. We went in. We played with the dogs. Finally, we went home.
Lesson 108
Writing Effective Sentences II

- Lead with an interesting topic sentence. Word the sentence so that it “hooks” your readers and makes them want to read on.

- Use active verbs primarily. In a sentence with an active verb, the subject performs the action (e.g., He speaks). In a passive-verb sentence, the subject is acted upon (e.g., He is spoken to). Active verbs generally make a stronger impression than passive verbs. Use a passive verb when the “doer” of an action is unknown or unimportant.

Exercise 1 Underline the topic sentence that best hooks the reader.

Toonia, my new pen pal, lives with her grandmother in Bangkok, Thailand.

Having a pen pal is one way to learn about another country.

I know more about Thailand than I used to know.

Amid the bright colors and noisy streets of Bangkok lives my new pen pal, Toonia.

2. Twelve inches of snow fell yesterday, but it all melted today.

   Not the usual one or two inches of snow fell yesterday.

   Due to temperatures rising to 60°, all the snow that fell yesterday melted today.

3. Here is what I think about smoking: Kids shouldn’t smoke because smoking is bad for their health and it becomes a habit that is nearly impossible to break.

   Kids shouldn’t smoke because it is bad for their health and it is a hard habit to break.

   Coughing every few minutes and pausing for an extra gasp of air, the speaker warned students about the dangers of smoking.
4. The water in the river was rough, and the water bounced the raft around.

If you are going out on the water, you should wear a life jacket.

When the rough water bounced the raft around, we were glad that we were wearing life jackets.

Here’s why you should wear a life jacket when you are on a boat.

Exercise 2  Rewrite the following passage, changing passive verbs to active verbs where appropriate.

The last scene in the movie is packed with action. Tex Carlson, the sheriff, is chased into a dead-end canyon by a band of nasty-looking outlaws. A way out is found by Tex, though, at the last minute. He scrambles up the cliff like an agile mountain goat, just as his deputy is arriving.
Lesson 109
Writing Effective Sentences III

- Create special effects. You can repeat certain words or phrases for emphasis or to create a certain effect. You can also use interruption for emphasis. A sudden break in thought can call attention to an important point. Another way to emphasize is to use a different kind of sentence that stands out from all the others.

▶ Exercise 1 Use the list to identify how the sentence or sentences below were made more effective. Some may have more than one answer.

- interesting topic sentence
- repetition for emphasis
- varied sentence length
- varied sentence structure
- interruption for emphasis
- unusual sentence for special effect

1. Did you know that 1 in 3 families today has a single parent? The situation was very different 25 years ago. At that time, only about 1 in 10 families had a single parent.

Exercise 2 Rewrite the paragraph below using effective sentences.

Lesson 110
Building Paragraphs I

You can arrange the supporting details in a paragraph in several ways. One way is based on time. Chronological order places events in the order in which they happened. An easy way to order chronologically the events you are writing about is first to make a timeline of them. Make use of words that signal chronological order. These include the following: first, while, then, after, when, immediately, suddenly, finally, and last. Notice some of these words in the following paragraph:

I took my usual walk in the park today with Fifi. First we strolled through the rose garden. Then we stopped at the green bench for a brief rest. After resting a while, we walked all the way around the pond and back down Plum Street. Eventually we became hungry, so we stopped for a lunch break under a big elm tree. Feeling full and content, I lay down for a nap in the grass. When Fifi’s barking woke me suddenly, I sat up, rubbed the sleep from my eyes, and looked around. The sun was setting, signaling that it was time to go home. Once again, Fifi and I took off walking. This time, however, we headed straight for the park entrance. Walking quickly down the sidewalk, we finally arrived at our apartment.

Exercise 1 Write the words that signaled chronological order in the paragraph above.

Exercise 2 Write the following list of events in paragraph form. Be sure the chronological order makes sense.

The water felt cold.
Then we took off our shoes and shorts.
First we put on our bathing suits under our shorts.
Once we got used to the water, we played in it for about an hour.
Then we walked to the beach.
Finally, it was time to go home.
While walking barefoot on the beach, we noticed seashells.
When we arrived, we spread out our towels.
On our walk home, we talked about the wonderful day.
After collecting shells, we waded into the water.
First, we put on our bathing suits under our shorts. Then we walked to the beach. When we arrived, we spread out our towels. Then we took off our shoes and shorts. While walking barefoot on the beach, we noticed seashells. After collecting shells, we waded into the water. The water felt very cold! Once we got used to the water, we played in it for about an hour. Finally, it was time to go home. On our walk home, we talked about the wonderful day.

Exercise 3 Write a paragraph about what you did last weekend. Be sure events are in chronological order.
Lesson 111
Building Paragraphs II

Another way to order details in a paragraph is by using spatial order. When you use spatial order, you arrange details by their location or position. There are different ways to arrange details in spatial order. For example, your description may go from near to far, left to right, or low to high.

Some words that help show spatial order include the following: next to, on, below, above, across, near, far, out, by, through, over, between, away, left, and down. These words may appear as prepositions, adjectives, or adverbs.

The teapot on the stove whistled. (preposition)
The dog ran in a nearby field. (preposition, adjective)

The following paragraph is arranged in spatial order.

As I sat in the park on the green bench, I looked at Fifi to my right. Her paws were muddy from the dirt around the bench. She started barking when she noticed a German shepherd in the nearby field. The dog approached us and sat in front of the bench. I threw a stick and both dogs went running across the field. I watched them for a while from the bench, waiting to see which would return with the prize.

Exercise 1 Write the words that signaled spatial order in the above paragraph.

Exercise 2 Write the following details in paragraph form. Use spatial order that moves from near to far.

Farther to the right was the audio-visual section.
Near the entrance to the left was the circulation desk.
I stood at the entrance to the library.
At the end opposite the library’s entrance were stairs leading down to the nonfiction books and up to the magazine area.
Just beyond the stairs was the back entrance, filled with works of art by local patrons.
To the right of the front door was the children’s room.
Past the circulation desk on the left were the reference room and the reading room.
Behind the circulation desk was the librarian’s office.

▶ Exercise 2 Write a paragraph describing the room you are in now. Use spatial order.
Lesson 112
Building Paragraphs III

In compare/contrast order, present details about two subjects by describing their similarities and differences. This can be done in two ways. You can discuss all the details about one subject and then about the other subject:

Fifi is a small black poodle. She has very short, curly hair. She is very quiet and stays away from people. She loves to be lazy and lie outside in the sun. Rex is a large brown and white collie. He has long, thick fur. He is very friendly and barks loudly. He loves to play fetch with a stick in the backyard.

Or you can do comparisons detail-by-detail, writing about both subjects at the same time:

While Fifi is a small black poodle, Rex is a large brown and white collie. Fifi has short curly hair and Rex has long thick fur. Fifi is very quiet and stays away from people. Rex is very friendly and barks loudly. While Fifi loves to be lazy and lie in the sun, Rex prefers to play fetch with a stick.

Exercise 1 Write the following details in paragraph form. Use compare/contrast order.

Bony fish are more common. Fish can be divided into two groups: bony fish and cartilage fish. Cartilage fish have skeletons made of cartilage. The end of your nose is cartilage. Bony fish have skeletons like human bones. Both kinds of fish have fins and gills. Only the teeth of cartilage fish are calcified like bones.
Grandma Nora is quiet and dignified.
Grandma Hazel plays the piano.
Grandma Hazel works for a political organization.
Grandma Nora sings with a band.
Grandma Hazel is talkative and fun.
Grandma Hazel lives in Phoenix.
Grandma Nora lives in Chicago.
Grandma Nora works for a government agency.

Exercise 2 Write a paragraph that compares and contrasts your own interests and abilities with those of a friend.
Lesson 113
Paragraph Ordering

Just as you needed to choose an order for your sentences, you need to choose an order for the paragraphs in your writing. When you are revising, check that each sentence tells something about the topic of that paragraph. Cross out any sentences that do not. Be sure your paragraphs follow one another in a way that makes sense. Finally, check that you have transition words between the last sentence of one paragraph and the first sentence of the following paragraph.

FIRST DRAFT:

The second day we went to the beach. The sun came out, the water was cool, and we had a great time. The sky was blue. We made huge sand castles. We went swimming and waterskiing.

The first day of our vacation was a big disappointment. We had to stay indoors. It rained all day long. There were thunder and lightning, too.

The weather was perfect the rest of the week. I’m glad I didn’t go home after the first day!

REVISED DRAFT:

The first day of our vacation was a big disappointment. It rained all day long. There were thunder and lightning, too, so we had to stay indoors.

The second day we went to the beach. The sky was blue, and the sun came out. First we made huge sand castles; then we went swimming and waterskiing. We had a great time.

The weather was perfect the rest of the week. I’m glad I didn’t go home after the first day!

练习 1 写 1, 2, or 3 在空白处前面的每一段来表示这三个段落应该如何排列。

_______  最终，苏珊阿姨主动提出要烤她著名的樱桃派。有了那么多的食物要出售，我们确信能够筹集到足够的钱去多伦多。

_______  我们的足球队被邀请参加一个在多伦多举行的锦标赛。加拿大的多伦多。不幸的是，我们没有足够的钱雇一辆车把我们送到那里。我们真的想参加，所以我们决定举行一个烘焙销售来筹集一些钱。
The morning of the bake sale, we realized we did not have enough food. Kelly, who was in charge of donations, was especially upset. Since she was scheduled to work at the sale all morning, she didn’t know how she was going to get more food. I called my friend Lois, who was not scheduled to work until afternoon. She said she and her grandfather could make another four dozen cookies. Then I called my sister Kate. She asked the owner of the bakery where she works if he would donate some pastries. Meanwhile, I went home to bake two more cakes.

Exercise 2  Revise the following paragraphs. Rewrite them in the space provided.

Admission is free, but seating is limited—so come early and enjoy! Polk Middle School is announcing its spring production, Images. It includes songs, dances, and sketches of life as a sixth grader. This is a new play written by the students themselves.

There will also be an afternoon performance at 2:00 P.M. on June 2. Everyone in the community is invited to attend. The play will be performed at 8:00 P.M. June 1 and 7:30 P.M. June 2.
Lesson 114
Personal Letters I

A personal letter is an informal letter to a person that you know well. Personal letters have a tone similar to friendly conversation. They describe recent events in your life and your reactions to them. They also ask the recipient of the letter for news. In a personal letter, the heading and the closing are usually indented, as is each paragraph in the body of the letter.

Exercise 1 Read the following personal letter. Answer each question.

2496 Harrison Avenue
Worthington, Ohio 43085
March 3, 1996

Dear Yvonne,

I was really happy to get your last letter. What a funny family you have. I laughed out loud when I read about how you and your dad had to carry a ladder on the subway to your new apartment.

Things have been pretty quiet here, but I do have one piece of news. Our jump rope team entered the all-school jump rope competition, and we came in second! Boy, were we nervous. But we kept our cool and just kept jumping. The next time you visit I’ll show you our routine.

When you come, be sure to bring your swimsuit. The new community pool is finally finished. By the way, how did you ever get that ladder up seven flights of stairs?

Your good friend,

Angie

Exercise 2 Write a letter to a friend about your summer activities.
Lesson 115
Personal Letters II

Personal letters can also take the form of invitations and thank-you notes. For example, you might write a thank-you note to a naturalist who gave a talk to your class. You might write a letter inviting your grandmother to visit you at your home. These two kinds of personal letters are usually semiformal, avoiding the slang and sentence fragments that you might use in a postcard to a friend. The heading and the closing are usually indented, as is each paragraph in the body of the letter.

Exercise 1 Write a thank-you note to an adult relative. In your letter express your appreciation for something nice that he or she did for you.
Exercise 2 Write a letter inviting the parents of students in your class to attend a poetry reading by members of the class.
Lesson 116
Personal Letters III

If you want to write to an author or a performer that you admire, you should write a personal letter. When you write to a celebrity, use a respectful tone and a semiformal writing style. Be sure to state clearly how the author’s work has affected you. Celebrities cannot respond to each and every letter. However, if your letter catches the author’s interest, you might receive a letter in return.

Exercise 1 Read the following letter. Then answer each question.

Dear Jean,

Mrs. Fritz, I have read all your books. The book I like best is the one about growing up in China. The things you wrote about China made me want to visit it some day. I understood how homesick you felt because once I had to spend the entire summer in Arizona, far away from my family in New Jersey.

I’ve learned a lot about United States history from your biographies. I feel as if I have met each of your subjects in person. Could you please send me an autographed copy of one of your books? It doesn’t matter which one.

Your friend,

Janine Janiewicz

Lesson 117
Business Letters: Letters of Request or Complaint

Business letters are letters sent to an organization to achieve a specific purpose. One common type of business letter is the letter of request. A letter of request asks for information or service. In this type of letter, begin by identifying yourself. Then explain what information you need and why you need it. Also, be clear about where the information should be sent. Since you are asking for a favor, always show courtesy in your request.

Business letters are usually written in block form or semiblock form. In block form, all parts of the letter are lined up at the left margin. In semiblock form, the heading, closing, and signature are aligned on the right side of the page. The recipient of a business letter is usually a stranger, so the letter should be formal in style and respectful in tone.

Exercise 1 Read the following letter of request. Then answer each question below.

Dear Mr. Holbrook:
I am a sixth grader at Horatio Alger Middle School. Could you send me some information about the national parks in the West? Thanks tons.
Sincerely,
Pramode Pirakh

1. Are the salutation and closing appropriate? __________
2. Does the letter writer identify himself? __________
3. Does the letter writer explain why he needs the information? __________
4. Is the writer specific enough about the information he wants? __________
5. Is the letter courteous in tone? __________
6. Is the letter appropriately formal in style? __________

Exercise 2 Rewrite the above letter to make it better. Refer to your evaluation, and add new information as needed. Sign your own name to the letter.

Another common type of business letter is the letter of complaint. A letter of complaint informs someone about a problem and usually requests some type of action. In your letter state the problem and how it has affected you. Use supporting details to explain the problem. End your letter by stating what you want done. Be firm but polite. If you let your anger burst out, you are less likely to get help in solving the problem.

▶ Exercise 3 Read the following letter of complaint. List three weak points of the letter below.

Dear Sir or Madam:

The other day I decided I finally needed a new daypack, so I went to three different stores at the mall. Then I saw your daypacks and bought one. Your daypacks are really crummy. I bought the daypack two weeks ago and the back pocket is already coming off! I use the pocket to hold little things like my eraser and pencil sharpener and house key. Yesterday my key fell out because of the hole in the seam of the pocket! I shouldn’t have to mend a new pack. I demand a full refund of my money!

The money or else . . .

Lesson 118
Business Letters: Letters of Opinion

A letter of opinion is a letter that voices your thoughts and ideas on a particular issue. You might write a letter of opinion to the school newspaper about a new policy or program. You might write to a public official to comment on a community or national issue. Or you might write to a magazine to react to a recent article.

Here are some guidelines for writing a good letter of opinion.

- Try to put your main idea into a single sentence.
- Provide details to support your opinion.
- If possible, suggest a solution to the problem.
- Use a courteous tone: avoid name-calling or broad generalizations.

Exercise 1 Read the following letter of opinion. Then answer the questions that follow.

Dear Mayor Farmer:

The downtown recreation center is a great idea, but the plan for it could be improved. According to the current plan, there will be room for four basketball courts, which can also serve as volleyball courts. It’s true that the youth basketball leagues need more space for their games. However, our city does not have a single indoor tennis court. More than two hundred young people take part in summer tennis tournaments in Mount Airy, but they have no place to practice during the winter. Many adults fill the five outdoor courts in summer. They, too, would benefit from an indoor facility. The new recreation center should appeal to many different groups in our community. I strongly urge you to include at least one tennis court in the plan for the new facility.

Sincerely,
Demar Johnson

2. What details does the writer include to support his point of view? ________________
3. What solution does the writer propose to the problem? ________________________________

4. How would you describe the tone of the letter? ________________________________

Exercise 2 Write a letter of opinion to your school or community paper about an issue that is important to you, or choose one of the following topics. Use the guidelines above in drafting your letter.

- a change in a school rule
- a needed facility at your school
- safety in your community
- a way to beautify your community
